DOMAINE PASCAL PRUNIER-BONHEUR SAINT-ROMAIN LA COMBE BAZIN 2017

<https://gerrardseel.co.uk/products/domaine-pascal-prunier-bonheur-saint-romain-la-combe-bazin-2017>

Domaine Pascal Prunier-Bonheur Saint-Romain La Combe Bazin 2017 has a bracing minerality imparted by the soils of its vineyard. This makes it an ideal partner to food, whilst the perfect level of acidity provides freshness and vitality. This is classic white Burgundy at an affordable price and is sure to please lovers of fine Chardonnay. The 2017 vintage gave wines that are very approachable in youth and this is a super example.

Saint-Romain is a lesser known appellation of the Côte D'Or, yet this Domaine Pascal Prunier-Bonheur example from La Combe Bazin has much to offer the Burgundy lover.

ABOUT THE GROWER

The fifth generation of a winegrowing family, Pascal Prunier-Bonheur took over the estate in 1983; it now operates 6 hectares of vines spread across Saint-Romain in Beaune through to Auxey-Duresses, Monthelie, Meursault and Pommard. Pascal Prunier-Bonheur simply aims to make honest and upstanding wines as he feels that to do otherwise would be cheating his vines, his customers and himself. The style here is one of restraint. The wines lack nothing in terms of power, but this is shown through refinement and great elegance.

By combining tradition and modernity Pascal wants to offer "a genuine product, the result of hard work without pretense and without excessive ambition." The result is a selection of high quality wines at very reasonable prices. Prunier-Bonheur is not the type of estate to rest upon its laurels, adding a negociant business to its winemaking arm in 2002, and a new winery has been operational since 2008. Domaine Pascal Prunier-Bonheur is still adding a few hectares of vineyards to its holdings when possible, the most recent being a plot of Meursault, a beautiful parcel of Auxey-Duresses red and a new premier cru, Auxey-Duresses Val.
