DOMAINE TOLLOT-BEAUT SAVIGNY-LÈS- BEAUNE 1ER CRU SAVIGNY-LAVIÈRES 2017

<https://gerrardseel.co.uk/products/domaine-tollot-beaut-savigny-les-beaune-1er-cru-savigny-lavieres-2017>

Domaine Tollot-Beaut Savigny-Les-Beaune 1er Cru Savigny-Lavieres has spicy raspberry fruit dominant on the nose, the palate is generous and well fruited with great balance and grip. Although this Savigny-Lès-Beaune Les Lavières wine is fun to drink now, there are several years life left in it if well cellared.

As in most vintages, the Domaine Tollot-Beaut Savigny-Lès-Beaune 1er Cru Savigny-Lavières is approachable a bit earlier than its twin Champs-Chevrey. A wonderful red Burgundy almost ready from the day of bottling.

ABOUT THE GROWER

Domaine Rapet Père Et Fils' lineage can be traced back to at least 1765 thanks to a dated, silver tastevin much treasured by the family. Rapet is one of the most ancient families of the Côte D'Or and the estate is now under the control of Vincent Rapet and his charming wife Sylvette who manage the 20 hectares with skill and a keen eye to nature. Based in the village of Pernand-Vergelesses, Domaine Rapet's vineyards lie on and around the hill of Corton.

The wines of Pernand-Vergelesses have great individuality and, at Domaine Rapet, a full spectrum can be tasted. The white wines are fresh and lively with delicious citrus and floral notes. As you'd expect, the premiers crus give more power on the palate and of these vineyards Sous Frétille is perhaps regarded as the best. That is, of course, if you don't count the grand cru Corton Charlemagne vineyard that produces stunning, long-lived wines that age for decades in the finest vintages.

The finely fleshed red wines of Domaine Rapet are quite simply stunning and offer great value. The premier cru of Les Vergelesses backs onto the appellation of Savigny-Lès-Beaune and seems to bear a similar charm, whilst also benefitting from a distinct minerality beneath the bright berry fruit and fine tannins. The grand cru of Corton Les Pugeots is big and structured, and it generally needs a little time to soften and become rounded. But it's well worth the wait, for Vincent's hands always craft a superb wine that is a sensational food partner when mature.
