Aurea Standing Lamp

Aurea is a natural rattan column, handwoven with bold, sculptural proportions. A versatile piece, Aurea has the ability to command the room as a decorative statement or can be used as a lampshade to create distinct geometric shadows, providing alternative dimensions in your space after dark. Aurea is one member of our family of sculptural rattan plinths and can be combined with Eclair, Ares, Cronos or Demeter for a stand-out pairing.

The Aurea Standing Lamp, now comes in four exquisite new colorways — Burgundy, Dark Green, Navy Blue, and Terracotta. These striking new shades elevate the column's already commanding presence, adding depth, elegance, and personality to any space.
