When it comes to gifting the ladies in our circle this year, our M.O. is the earlier, the better. The best gift ideas for women this holiday season are less about when you deliver your present (that's what birthday gifts are for!), and more about sending a loving message. After all, with so much time and distance between one another, a little something sent from afar is instantly thoughtful—especially if you can't hand it off from a safe six-foot distance.

From sustainable jewelry to silk pajama sets and face mask accessories, we corralled dozens of thoughtful gifts for women—no matter who you're shopping for or what your budget is. Browse and shop the 35 best gift ideas for women until you've ticked them all off your list (and maybe, just maybe, stumbled across a few great gift ideas for yourself too).
