

DEEP SIX COMPRESSOR

The Deep Six is a true bypass studio-grade compressor in stomp box form, inspired by the Universal Audio 1176 with the simplicity of the Ross and Dynacomp. The Deep Six V3 features an added tone knob, soft switch bypassing, updated components for improved sound, top mounted jacks and updated art that gives a humble nod to the original art that started it all. Offering a Level, Sustain, Attack, Blend and Tone control, the Deep Six will give you unmatched versatility. Polarity will never be an issue as the Deep Six comes standard with a reverse polarity protection circuit. The pedal runs at 18v thanks to the internal voltage doubler giving you the maximum amount of headroom while maintaining a typical current draw of 8.9mA. The Blend and Attack controls found on the Deep Six allow you to really tailor the response of the compression.

LEVEL

Used to set the Deep Six to unity volume. When maxed out, the Deep Six provides enough output to drive the amplifier and other pedals for added sustain.

TONE

The tone knob works as a bass cut to help shape the low end of your guitar signal. Turn it up to cut more bass, and turn it down to let more bass through.

SUSTAIN

For rhythm playing, run the Sustain control at lower settings so that the Compressor is more of a tone shaper. This will keep your sound nice and even and compensate for any variance in the velocity of your strumming. For those Santana / Clapton style leads, turn it up for more sustain.

BLEND

Mixes in the compressed signal with the original, dry signal. Turn the Blend control up to blend in the compressed signal. For high output signals (humbuckers), the blend control allows you to dial in more of the dry signal and dial out the distortion that most humbuckers bring to a compressor.

ATTACK

Allows you to adjust how fast the compressor will react to your notes. Set it higher for punchier leads or lower for smooth rhythm.

9 volt DC, Center Neg, 100ma min

Output Jack

Input Jack

Bypass
Switch

Got questions? Shoot us an email at customerservice@walrusaudio.com. Need a repair? All our pedals come with a limited lifetime warranty. Email repairs@walrusaudio.com should your pedal need a tune up. For life advice, refer to Buzzfeed's top 10 lists.

