RESONANCE OF THE STARS

It connotes the convergence of cosmic energies and the metamorphosis and new-dawn of life. The union of the Year of the Snake and Aseae's new beginning represents the regenerative vitality and a fresh odyssey, signifying the life force of rejuvenation.

"Experience the might of the universe and discern thyself amidst the star-river trajectories."

The energy stones and design motifs symbolize the cosmic forces and the equilibrium between the inner and outer self, communicating the significance of self-recuperation and energy arousal.

Aseae SS25 collection unfolds across five sub-series.

Inspiration is drawn from the orbits of planets and stars, evoking the cadences of undulating waves and revolving star systems, while also evoking the intertwined interstellar network and the enigmatic serpentine nebula.

Cosmic Pulsation: Symbolizes the ebb and flow of life and energy.

The Significance of the Year of the Snake: A symbol of transformation and rebirth, integrating linear and sculptural designs to initiate the co-existence and renaissance of power and spirituality.

Vol.01
Laced Onyx

The inspiration is sourced from the undulations of nebulae and the Milky Way in the cosmos. The elegance of lace is intricately woven into wearable adornments. Black onyx resembles mysterious celestial bodies strewn across the star-filled expanse, emanating a profound starlight amidst the lace patterns. Black onyx serves not only as a vessel for the stars but also as a tangible marker of the wearer's inner cosmic realm.

Vol.02 Tiger's Eye S Earring

Vol.02 Tiger's Eye S

The shape of the letter "S" is from the limited edition design for the Year of the Snake. The snake-head design is crafted by leveraging the brand's initial letter "S". It is inlaid through the up-and-down splicing of tiger's-eye stones with unique textures.

Vol.03
Stardust Onyx

The black onyx is as serene and profound as the night-sky, with pure silver delineating the cosmic arcs, responding to the inner balance and rhythm.

The structure, which is narrower at the top and broader at the bottom, symbolizes the sedimentation of energy, with the arcs stretching out.

The resonance between the materials and the lines awakens the therapeutic connection between the body and the universe.

Vol.04
Ruby Planet

The snake's eyes are crafted from red agate, drawing inspiration from the myth of Nuwa, the snake-bodied female divinity. They are transformed into eyes of energy for perceiving crises. The silver adornments wind sinuously like cosmic spirals, bearing the dual energies from the universe and the earth. During the act of wearing, one can discern inner strength, accompanying oneself to transcend the old self and embark on a new life journey.

Vol.05
Aureol Cycle

Derived from the abbreviation of the Latin term "Aureole", signifying "halo".
The series draws inspiration from the path of solar eclipses. At the moment when the lunar silver-toned edges encroach upon the corona of the sun's radiance, all the light engulfed by darkness solidifies within the fabric of spacetime's folds.
The golden aura of the tiger's-eye stone resembles an annular solar eclipse, while the black onyx serves as a shadowy counterpart.

Aseae was founded in 2024 Italy.

"A sé" connotes a power of spirit and authority, the force that actualizes things.

"ae" serves as a symbol of energy. Energy pervades all things. We are products of the universe, and our bodies harbor elements from stardust. In the quest for self-discovery, we glean inspiration from the cosmos, in search of inner equilibrium and strength, thereby resonating with the boundless expanse of the universe.

Brand Slogan: From Cosmic Light to Daily Delight.

This connection extends beyond the mere act of wearing jewelry on a material plane; it is a resonance of spirit and energy. It inspires everyone to explore their unique worth and become a distinctive and irreplaceable self.

"Connect with the universe and reclaim inner strength."

By integrating the design connotations with the functionality of energy stones, it bestows upon the wearer the capacity to resonate with the universe and receive an energy enhancement. Connect with cosmic energy to stabilize the frequencies of the body and mind.

Materials:

Aseae combines 925 sterling silver with white rhodium plated and natural semi-precious stones.

Moreover, anticipate the upcoming Fine Jewelry series.
