LEVEL UP YOUR FLOORING FOR LESS

about us

At Vittoria, we believe that flooring should be more than just a surface – it should be the foundation of your home's style, warmth, and personality. That's why we specialise in premium European Oak engineered wood flooring that blends timeless elegance with everyday practicality. Crafted from high-quality, responsibly sourced European oak, our floors bring a sense of natural beauty and understated luxury to any interior. Built to last, our engineered boards are designed to handle the demands of modern living while maintaining their rich character and charm.

We offer two thoughtfully curated collections to suit a variety of styles, spaces, and budgets. The Forest Collection features four sophisticated colours, each available in both plank and matching herringbone formats. This perfect pairing allows for seamless transitions and creative layouts, ideal for design-conscious homes. Whether you want the classic look of a plank or the refined pattern of herringbone, Forest delivers flexibility and premium finish in equal measure.

For those seeking natural tones at an even more accessible price point, The Nature Collection offers eight stunning options inspired by raw, organic beauty. With six colours in plank and two in herringbone, this collection celebrates the authentic look of European oak while offering incredible value. It's the ideal choice for anyone looking to achieve a high-end look with a more budget-friendly approach.

With Vittoria Flooring, you're not just investing in beautiful wood flooring – you're choosing quality craftsmanship, sustainable materials, and collections designed to bring your vision to life in a style that you'll love for years to come.

THIS WAY TO THE GOOD STUFF

the forest collection

The Forest Collection by Vittoria Flooring brings together natural beauty, modern craftsmanship, and versatile design to create a timeless flooring solution for any space. Made from premium European oak, each board offers warmth, character, and durability, with a refined finish that elevates both homes and commercial interiors.

The range features four expertly curated shades, each designed to complement a variety of interior styles. Shell is a soft, pale tone that radiates calm and clarity—perfect for bright, minimalist spaces. Honey brings warm golden hues that enrich interiors with a timeless, welcoming feel. Autumn is a rich mid-brown that evokes the beauty of fallen leaves, ideal for adding depth and grounding to any room. And Espresso, the boldest of the range, offers a deep, smoky tone that makes a dramatic and luxurious statement.

Built with engineered strength, The Forest Collection is suitable for underfloor heating and finished with a durable matt lacquer that resists stains and scratches. Sourced sustainably and designed to perform, it's the perfect blend of elegance, practicality, and long-lasting value. Whether you're after classic charm or contemporary sophistication, The Forest Collection sets the tone for beautifully finished spaces.

the nature collection

The Nature Collection by Vittoria Flooring offers the perfect blend of style, quality, and value—bringing the beauty of real wood flooring into your home without the premium price tag. Designed with both elegance and affordability in mind, this collection is ideal for homeowners, developers, and designers looking for high-end looks on a more accessible budget.

Available in a range of eight natural colours, the Nature Collection includes six plank options and two herringbone styles, all inspired by the authentic tones and textures of raw oak. With board thicknesses ranging from 10mm to 14mm, it's a versatile choice for everything from living rooms to kitchens and light commercial spaces.

Easy to install and fully compatible with underfloor heating, the Nature Collection is as practical as it is beautiful. Its engineered design also uses fewer natural resources than solid wood, making it a more sustainable option—perfect for those who want to make a conscious choice without compromising on aesthetics.

Whether you're updating a single room or taking on a full renovation, The Nature Collection brings warm, natural style and lasting performance to every project—all at a price that works for you.
