

Pet Prep Checklist

Bringing home a new pet is an exciting time, but it can also be a bit overwhelming. This list will ensure you have all the essentials ready, making the transition smoother for both you and your new furry friend

Food and Water Bowls

Choose sturdy bowls that won't tip over easily. Stainless steel or ceramic options are often best as they are easy to clean and durable

High-Quality Pet Food

Feeding your pet CountryPet Naturals is more than just giving them a meal. It's about providing them with premium nutrition that supports their health and well-being. From our New Zealand Lamb Recipe Dog Food Rolls to our Pure Wild Icelandic Cod Liver Oil, each of our products is designed to provide your pet with the nutrients they need to thrive.

Comfortable Bedding

A comfortable bed is essential for your pet's rest and relaxation. Make sure it's the right size for your pet to stretch out comfortably

Collar and ID Tag

A collar with an ID tag is crucial in case your pet ever gets lost. Make sure the collar is the right size and the ID tag includes your contact information

Leash and Waste Baggies (for dogs):

A sturdy, comfortable leash is crucial for taking dogs on walks or for training. The length and type of leash you choose may depend on your dog's size, breed, and behavior. Waste baggies are also a must-have for responsible pet ownership, allowing you to promptly clean up after your dog during walks. For outdoor pets, leash kits and raincoats are also recommended to ensure safety and comfort¹².

Litter Box (for Cats)

If you're bringing home a kitten, a litter box is a must. Choose one that's easy to clean and big enough for your cat to use comfortably.

Grooming Supplies

Depending on your pet's breed, you might need grooming supplies like brushes, nail clippers, and pet-safe shampoo

Crate or Carrier

A crate or carrier is useful for safe transportation and can also serve as a secure space for your pet at home

Toys

Toys are important for your pet's mental stimulation and physical exercise. Choose a variety of toys suitable for your pet's size and age

Veterinarian Contact Information

Last but not least, have your vet's contact information readily available. Schedule a check-up for your new pet as soon as possible after bringing them home
