

It Was a Dark, Dark Day

(Luke 23:44-24:9)

It was a dark, dark day
When they crucified the Lord.
It was a dark, dark day
When they crucified the Lord.
Yes, they nailed Him to a cross,
A cross of wood.
But what they meant for evil
God meant for good. (It's true!)

It was a dark, dark day
When the Savior breathed His last.
It was a dark, dark day
When the Savior breathed His last.
And though some would realize
This was God's Son.
Still no one understood
All that God had done. (Indeed!)

*Jesus paid the price for sin
For all who put their trust in Him.
Jesus paid the price, the price for sin.
Sing it again!
Jesus paid the price for sin
For all who put their trust in Him.
Jesus paid the price, the price for sin.*

It was a dark, dark day
When they laid Him in the tomb.
It was a dark, dark day
When they laid Him in the tomb.
With His death it must have seemed
All hope had died.
But with His sacrifice
God was satisfied. (Amen!)

(chorus)

But that's not the end!
It was a bright, bright day
When the Savior rose again.
It was a bright, bright day
When the Savior rose again.
And He showed His own that He
Was alive
And there were so many proofs
It can't be denied. (Whoa, no)

*Jesus paid the price for sin
For all who put their trust in Him.
Jesus paid the price, the price for sin.
Sing it again!
Jesus paid the price for sin
For all who put their trust in Him.
Jesus paid the price, the price for sin.*
