

Let My People Go!

(Exodus 5:1-12:22)

God sent word to Pharaoh
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”
Then there’ll be plagues in Egypt
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”

It’s true,
Pharaoh’s heart was so hard.

First God put blood in the water.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”
Then frogs filled up their houses.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”

And still,
Pharaoh’s heart was so hard.

---

So gnats and flies covered Egypt.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”
Then God struck down their livestock.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”

And still,
Pharaoh’s heart was so hard.

So boils broke out on their skin.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”
Then God sent hail on Egypt
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”

And still,
Pharaoh’s heart was so hard.

---

So locusts ate their crops up.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”
Then darkness covered Egypt.
“Let My people go.”
But Pharaoh said to Moses,
“No, no, no.”

And still,
Pharaoh’s heart was so hard.

All the first born died in Egypt.
“Let My people go.”
Then Pharaoh said to Moses
“Go, go, go!”
