

So It Rained

(Genesis 6:5-8:20)

Old Noah an ark, God told him to make,
And two of each kind, He was to take.
Then all the earth became one great lake,
Because the Lord, man did forsake.

*So it rained,
And it poured,
As judgment from the Lord.
Forty days,
Forty nights,
For man wouldn't do what's right.*

The waters rose up and all were drowned,
But those in the ark were safe and sound.
Finally when they reached dry ground,
They worshiped God for mercy they'd found.

(chorus)

But, Noah was a righteous man
Who by faith obeyed the Lord's commands.
Noah was a righteous man
Who by faith obeyed the Lord's commands.

The lesson for all the human race:
Our debt from sin we can't erase.
Judgment from God we all will face,
Unless the Savior we embrace.

(chorus)
