

The Grumbling Blues

(Exodus 15:22-17:7)

They said to Moses, “What will we drink?
We looked around and there's no sink.”
They said to Moses, “What will we drink?
We looked around and there's no sink.”
And though they failed to trust the Lord,
From the rock the water poured.

*Grumbling blues, grumbling blues
Just say to grumbling, “I refuse.”
But if grumbling is what you choose,
You'll have no joy,
Just the grumbling blues.*

They said to Moses, “What will we eat?
We looked around and there's no meat.”
They said to Moses, “What will we eat?
We looked around and there's no meat.”
But bread from heaven came down;
There was manna on the ground.

(chorus)

So listen children, please guard your hearts,
And stop the grumbling before it starts.
Yes, listen children, please guard your hearts,
And stop the grumbling before it starts.
Count your blessings and you will see
God has given all you need.

(chorus)
