

When I See a Rainbow

(Genesis 9:8-17)

When I see a rainbow,
way up in the sky,
I think about the Flood
and the reason why.

God has made the rainbow
For all on earth to see.
It speaks about His promise,
In hues of majesty.

*Seven colors, bound together,
Form a bright and shining bow.
We can see it in the weather
When the sun shines through the rain just so.
God has promised that the waters
Will not flood the earth again.
Though He's patient, God is holy
And can have no part of any sin.*

When I see a rainbow,
It's colors shining bright,
It tells me God hates evil,
So I must choose what's right.

I thank God for the rainbow,
'Tis mercy I can see.
And He is oh, so patient
In His great love for me.

(chorus)

When I see a rainbow,
Of judgment I'm aware.
With Jesus as my Savior,
Like Noah I'll be spared.

Now I see a rainbow
in a gospel light,
Because I have been pardoned;
My Savior made me right.

So thank God for the rainbow;
'Tis mercy we can see.
And He is oh, so patient
In His love for you and me.
