Style Bite : Top 5 Miami Happenings

Oh hello Monday. I know you all might be wishing it was still the weekend, but there's plenty of good news to get you excited for this week. Today, on Style Bite we talk chocolate pedicures? (Yes, this beauty treatment actually exists in Miami.). Plus, give you the deets on the new H&M store opening at International mall, where to get a vegan mani/pedi, a new Sobe shop to score trendy finds and one next to the Design District that is chockfull of eclectic decor and baubles. And the best part, how you can win a trip to New York Fashion Week.

VEGAN IT OUT: Woo Hoo. Coral Gables got an organic nail salon that does nail art, too. The Petite Poet and I got the opportunity to sample a mani treatment and we were blown away at how talented the nail techs are as well as how relaxing the salon is with it's spa like decor and ambiance.
