Specifications

Body Wood	Swamp Ash	Alder: Very tonally balanced character. Alder is medium in weight and always two-piece
	Alder
	Mahogany	Swamp Ash: Nice round low-end, sparkling highs, but mids are scooped out for a more acoustic tone. Swamp Ash is a light to medium weight wood and can be offered as one piece for an extra charge.
	Sugar Pine
	Other	Mahogany: Great warm tone with strong midrange and thick low end. Mahogany is a light to medium weight wood that is always two-piece.
		Sugar Pine: This is our favorite wood because of its full, rich sound. Sugar Pine is very lightweight and is mostly two-piece.

Terms and Conditions

Below are the RS Guitarworks Custom Order Build Terms of Sale. Upon entering into an agreement of sale for a custom build these terms become binding upon the buyer:

- 1.) After this order form has been completed and a final price determined, a 50% deposit is required to start the build. The balance will be due once the order has been completed. For North American orders, shipping is free-of-charge.
- 2.) Once a deposit has been received and the build order is in our system, you have TWO (2) WEEKS to contact us regarding changes (color, aging level, accessories, etc.) to the original order.
- 3.) After the two-week period has passed, no further changes may be made, and the deposit CANNOT be refunded.
- 4.) Due to the nature of custom builds, no approval period is offered after completion. All sales are final, unless the instrument is found to have a defect.
- 5.) RS Guitarworks strives to ensure that the guitar/bass meets or exceeds expectations based on the order specifications.
- 6.) All guitars and basses come with a Lifetime Warranty to the original owner.
- 7.) The average time to complete a custom build from inception to completion is approximately ninety days. There can be exceptions to completion times based on build options. Known exceptions will be addressed upon review and acceptance of this order.

Please signify that you have read, understand, and accept the RS Guitarworks Custom Order Build Terms of Sale by printing your name and entering the date in the fields below.
