

Dress to Impress!

Middle and upper class families did not have to dress themselves, they had servants to help them! Imagine you are the maid in the Dickens household and you need to help Catherine get dressed.

Here are some outfits she might wear – you can mix and match, but don't forget she needs to dress to impress. First, print this page and glue it onto some card. Then cut out each item of clothing carefully, colour them in and dress your Catherine doll!
