

Charles Dickens Museum

Museum Hire Rates

The Charles Dickens Museum is a charming Georgian townhouse ideally situated in the heart of Bloomsbury in London, celebrated for its literary history and is also situated just a stone's throw away from the City.

Walking through the door of the museum is like stepping back in time to the era of Dickensian elegance. The interiors are faithfully restored in the early Victorian style and the objects on display tell the life of one of the greatest writers that has ever lived.

The Museum offers a unique setting for events with evocative period interiors and a welcoming café space with an outdoor garden area. The Museum is also often used as a location for film and television productions.

Facilities for use:

The Boardroom, Number 49

This room can be hired for meetings, group work or other projects.

Capacity: 25 guests seated in a lecture style or 16 to 18 guests seated at tables.

All prices quoted are subject to VAT

Rates: Half Day (under 4 hours) £275

Whole Day (over 4 hours) £500

These prices include the following facilities:

- Overhead projector and screen
- DVD Player
- Flipchart
- Conference call facilities (you would need your own dial-in details)
- WIFI access

Catering (per serving):

Tea/Coffee £2.50

Tea/Coffee/Biscuits £3.50

Orange Juice £2.00

Sandwiches £5.00

Cake £2.50

Charles Dickens Museum

Full Museum

The entire Museum can be made available for hire during daytime operational hours with a minimum of one month notice required. Such hire is subject to the discretion of Management and will incur additional charges. Strict terms and conditions apply.

Drinks Reception

Capacity: 60 guests comfortably, 80 maximum (any party with a guest list between 60 and 80 people will be subject to an additional staffing surcharge of £80.00)

Rates: Daytime (10:00-17:00) £3000 Evening (18:30-22:30) £1500

Dinner

Capacity: 30 guests

Rates: Evening (18:30-22:30) £2000

Filming

All filming must be done outside of our general opening hours unless otherwise agreed and be authorised by management.

Rates: from £200 per hour weekday, £250 per hour weekends

For filming during the day please see Full Museum Costs above. Such hire is subject to the discretion of Management and may incur additional charges. Strict terms and conditions apply.

Please note that all prices quoted are subject to VAT

A 10% discount is offered for registered charities.

Please contact the Museum at events@dickensmuseum.com for any enquiries.