

Audio Transcript: Letter from Mary Hogarth

I have just returned home from spending a most delightfully happy month with dearest Catherine in her own house. I only wish you could see her in it and sincerely hope you may some day or other not far distant. She makes the most capital housekeeper and is as happy as the day is long. I think they are more devoted than ever since their marriage if that be possible. I am sure you'd be delighted with him if you knew him. He is such a nice creature and so clever. He is courted and made up to by all the literary gentlemen and has more to do in that way than he can well manage.
