

CABINE STORAGE CABINET

A nod to sensibilities of sustainable living and Japanese Ryokan design, the understated Cabine unit is designed to seamlessly adapt to any room of the house.

The small Cabine is right at home in apartments, bedrooms and smaller spaces whilst still looking generous, with four internal compartments. The large Cabine, with its low profile, is right at home behind a sofa to display your favourite treasures or as a standalone media unit, creating the ultimate calm space while you watch your favourite series. Cabine can also be wall-mounted without legs for a flexible and floating storage system.
