HANDOUT

This luxurious treatment oil is comprised of 33 botanicals including Tuhka, a rare type of Brazil Nut that minimizes skin damage from free radicals and is sourced alongside Conservation International and the Trio tribe of South Suriname. The partnership enables the local community to protect 235,000 hectares of the Amazon rainforest. Retailer The Detox Market plants a tree for every purchase, ensuring you're doing your part for preservation too. LXMI 33 Face Oil, $154 at The Detox Market.
