Because each custom mold is unique, they are quoted on an individual basis. Please provide good, black and white camera-ready artwork (at least 300 dpi ) with desired dimensions noted. Allow $6-8$ weeks for molds and candy to be produced. Rush service, when feasible, is an extra $$ 50.00$ to $$ 100.00$. You pay for the molds once and they may be used as many times as you wish. Most molds are available in milk chocolate, dark chocolate and white chocolate. Here are some guidelines:

2 Dimensional Mold (the back of the finished piece is flat)
Mold Production .............................. $$ 350.00$
The prices above are the costs associated with producing the candy molds. The candy is an additional charge. The following are examples of work we have done and the prices:

Artwork Requirements

If you would like your own logo on a box or mold:

- Please supply us with good, clean black and white camera-ready artwork, at least 300 dots per inch (dpi). The simpler the artwork is, the better it will reproduce.
- Please avoid very ornate designs and fine lines very close together in your artwork.

No halftone screens or gray tones

- Artwork may be emailed to us: info@herculescandy.com with "Artwork Attached" as the subject line. Electronically sent artwork may be accepted in the following forms: tiff, pdf or psd. We can also accept simple artwork done in Microsoft Word.
- Touch ups by the printer or mold company require an extra charge.

For Molds, black areas will be raised, white will be lowered.

Terms & Conditions

Shipping: Chocolate is shipped in the USA only. Due to customs regulations, we do not ship chocolate out of the country. Shipping charges are figured on an individual basis depending on the weight of the package and destination. Cold Packs are required when outdoor temperatures exceed $60^{\circ}$. You will be advised of your ship date and shipping costs when you place your order.

Storage: Our chocolates should be stored in a cool, dry place away from strong odors. Ideal temperature is $70^{\circ}$ or less. Refrigeration is not recommended since it may cause "blooming" (appearance of unsightly white streaks or spots). If this occurs, chocolate is OK to eat, it just has an unsightly appearance.

Labeling: New York State law requires us to place our name and phone number or ingredient label on the packages that are large enough to hold them. This labeling is placed very discreetly on the bottom or back of the package. This is so that a consumer with a question or complaint (not likely!) may contact us.

Payment: We require a $50 \%$ deposit when the order is placed and the remaining $50 \%$ before the order is shipped. We accept: American Express, Discover, Visa and MasterCard. Orders shipped within New York State or originating in New York State are subject to New York State Sales Tax (8\%) unless for resale or a tax exempt organization, in which case a tax exempt form must be provided.

Changes/Cancellations: Once started, orders cannot be changed or canceled. In some cases, we may be able to increase your order.
