CABERNAYZYNS WERE A HUGE HIT AT BOTTLE ROCK 2016 IN NAPA VALLEY

NAPA VALLEY, Calif. (June 20, 2016) – The 4th Annual Bottle Rock was a sold out three day music festival in Napa Valley for foodies and music lovers. Attendees indulged in music from popular artists like Stevie Wonder and The Red Hot Chili Peppers, all while enjoying cooking demonstrations from top chefs, like Masaharu Morimoto from Iron Chef and Tyler Florence from Food Network. Representatives from over eighty local restaurants attended the outdoor extravaganza to celebrate great food, music and fun!

CabernayZyn superfood snacks were included in the culinary experiences at Master Sommelier Gilles de Chambure's wine tasting, which was held in the Platinum VIP lounge, sponsored by the Meadowood Resort. The menus at this event featured signature dishes and tasting menus created by world-renowned chefs. Gilles said CabernayZyns were very "well received" by the VIP patrons at the 2016 Bottle Rock event.

CabernayZyns are specially dried wine grapes packed with flavor and antioxidants. They can be enjoyed straight from the bag (packaged in one glass or one bottle equivalents to wine) or used as an ingredient on salads, in sauces, savory dishes, or sweet treats!
