LOST LORELEI

2023 BUYERS GUIDE

About Us

FASHION WITH PURPOSE

Lost Lorelei, a global resort wear brand founded by Australian-Filipina fashion designer Lorelei Bookluck, learned early on in her business that transparent sustainability is the core value she wanted to focus on. She did not want sustainability to be just a forefront effort of her brand, but the root culture of her enterprise. She found her purpose in the world of style by not just advocating sustainable fashion, but actually living and creating it.

“Many of our pieces have been designed to be worn in multiple ways. Most of our bamboo pieces are reversible, so our clientele have two different colors, which they can opt to wear many ways on different days when they travel. Our multiverse top really has dozens of ways it can be worn. “An added bonus is that each piece allows the wearer to be creative and unique. So if you are traveling, you can travel light without compromising your style options,” Lorelei Bookluck
