Information

The Koskela Gallery is pleased to present, Looking, Looking, Painting, a colourful collection of works by contemporary Pilbara artist, Doreen Chapman.

Doreen's work is emotive and endearing. Her distinctive use of bright pastels and funky characterisations of animals, people, and place are not only an expression of joy but also work as an important means of communication for Doreen as a deaf and non-verbal artist.

"Been born Jigalong. Big sister for my son, Dennis Thomas. She been come this way, Hedland. Doreen and me are from Karntimarta, Warralong. I been bring her here. Little girl she start painting in Warralong. She looking... looking... she quick painter, quickly, looking, looking. No fishing, no hunting, no car, painting, painting every day eh? You been bring 'em, [s]he painting, painting, painting! (laughs)"

- Doreen's Mother, Maywokka May Chapman

Doreen is a Manyjilyjarra artist and has spent the majority of her adult life in Warralong, a community 120km south-east of Port Hedland. Doreen started painting with her mother, Maywokka May Chapman, and she first exhibited with Martumili Artists in 2010. In recent years she has spent more time in Port Hedland and began painting at the Spinifex Hill Studios.

Spinifex Hill Studio stands on Kariyarra Country in the Pilbara region of Western Australia. It is home to one of the youngest First Nations art collectives in the north-west of Australia, Spinifex Hill Artists.
