Elaine Lane

Warakurna Artists

A series of works from Warakurna artist and senior painter, Elaine Lane

Elaine Lane is a senior artist from the Papulankutja (Blackstone) community who paints with Warakurna Artists through the Wanarn Tjilpi and Pampa Painting Program.

Elaine's work draws from the Ngaanyatjarra lands of Papulankutja country, depicting sacred sites and natural landscapes Elaine's paintings are vibrant and diverse, reflecting her unique style and connection to country.

Warakurna Artists

Warakurna Artists is a community operated and owned Art Centre encompassing the Ngaanyatjarra Lands of Western Australia. Established in 2005, Warakurna Artists provides services to artists living and visiting Warakurna and works closely with the nearby community of Wanarn.

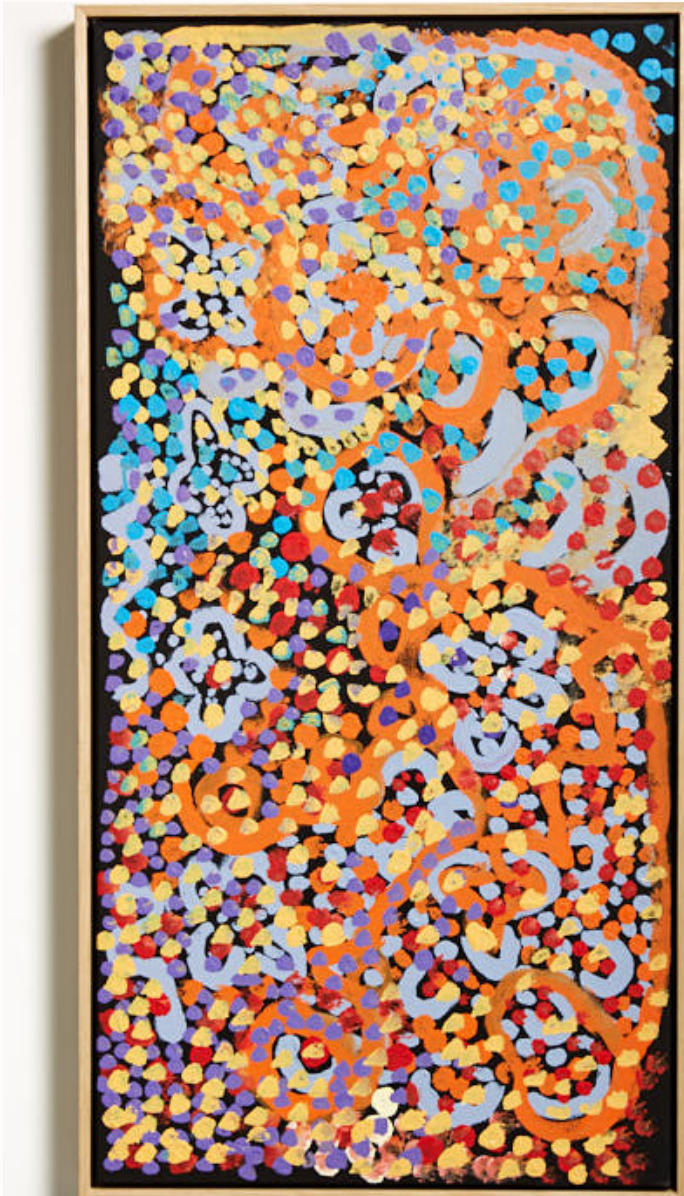

Wanarn Tjilpi and Pampa Painting Program

Warakurna Artists works closely with Wanarn Ages Care Facility to conduct painting sessions with elderly patients. This program nurtures artists who have arguably contributed largely to one of the most significant art movements in Australia.

The joyous communal activity has a myriad of positive health benefits such as relieving boredom and frustration.

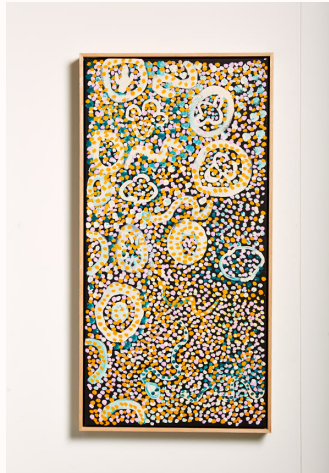

Health staff report that this diversional therapy helps to reduce patient's drug intake and the old people rejoice in sharing and passing on their important Tjukurrpa (Dreaming) with their families who visit them when the workshops are conducted.

Warakurna Artists is a positive and powerful example of Aboriginal businesses managed and governed by artists and community elders ensuring the wealth of talent and economic returns are retained in the community.
