

Social Impact Lighting – Ku:yitaipari (Fish Trap) Floor Lamp

Illuminate your space with the Ku:yitaipari Floor Lamp, a testament to the artistry of Ngarrindjeri weavers Aunty Ellen Trevorrow, Aunty Noreen Kartinyeri, and Bessie Rigney. This lamp merges their sculptural coiled sedge weaving with contemporary design featuring a sandstone base, bringing forth an exclusive limited edition piece rooted in tradition and sustainability. Crafted from freshwater sedge grasses, the lamp symbolises cultural heritage while supporting sustainable land management. With deep respect for Ngarrindjeri traditions, each lamp embodies the Coorong's beauty.

CLEANING AND CARE

Made completely from natural or reclaimed materials, it is best for your lampshade to avoid harsh sunlight. Pandanus and bush string are also dyed using a variety of natural materials such as roots and berries. Over time, fading may occur. This is a process inherent to a natural product and should not be viewed as a fault. We suggest dusting lightly and regularly with a feather duster. Always switch off the electricity supply before cleaning.
