

Lipoic Acid Plus

For Healthcare Professionals Only

Lipoic Acid Plus is a high-quality Alpha-Lipoic Acid together with vitamin C for antioxidant and metabolism support.

Lipoic Acid Plus supplies Alpha-Lipoic Acid, a potent antioxidant and a critical cofactor for many enzyme complexes. It is involved in biological energy production and has some heavy metal chelating properties as well.

Recommended dosage is one (1) capsule each day with food as a dietary supplement or as otherwise directed by a healthcare professional.

► Note: Biotics Research Corporation uses only the highest quality Lipoic Acid in its products. There is no consideration given to commonly used material from third world sources with questionable methods offered at significantly lower prices. Quality, purity, safety, and efficacy are our primary considerations.

Used for:

- Antioxidant support
- Metabolism support
- Energy production
- Heavy metal chelator
