OPENS FRIDAY AFTER THANKSGIVING
RUNS NOV. 26 THROUGH DEC. 12, 1993
11 AM TO 6 PM DAILY

DEAR FRIENDS & PATRONS,
WELCOME TO OUR OPEN HOUSE
AND WINTER REVELS!
EXPANDED! - 3 WEEKENDS!

It's the last day of the Faire season as I write. Kip and Jerry are up near Cape Cod, closing Carver. I can't fathom this season or this whole year. There is nothing particularly wrong with it. Business is good. Everything's good, really, I just don't get it, somehow. There's no sense of "done", "completed", "take a deep breath". I feel like some large context that I'm too dense to perceive, is just at the onset, and the signs of it are not legible to me yet. Can't wait to see what this is about!

I'm going to call this one MYSTERY OPEN HOUSE AT MORESCA.

WE HAVE SOME NEW STUFF:

THE BIG COAT, is just that. A big, warm coat, adapted from a Miyake pattern. We'll have it in several "Indian blanket" type and solid wools. One size, big. About $250, stock or order.

MUCH ADO, is a bodice inspired by Kenneth Brannagh's latest Shakespeare. Our only "below the bust" bodice, solid or bi-colour heavy cotton twill with a very cute ducktail in the back and three steelboned openings. $55, PETITE to XL.

GYPSY SKIRT, the ultimate in a five-tier black skirt; the bottom tier is about 20 yards and will also be available edged in heavy, crusty black lace. There will also be a black off-shoulder blouse to match. Made of a high quality, rayon/poly light twill with a sheen, tiers are joined with multi-colour satin piping. It reverses to solid black. Several sizes. $125 as far as I can tell, (it's hard to time).
