

Imagine if Prince Charming never found the girl who owned the glass slipper...

Or Peter Pan decided to join Captain Hook's crew...

What if Sleeping Beauty
was still asleep...

What a DISAPPOINTMENT!

We all love a story with a HAPPY ENDING, don't we?

Well, I know a story that has the best
HAPPILY EVER AFTER ending you can imagine.

It's full of surprises and excitement;
but do you know the best part?

This story is TRUE!

What is this wonderful story?

It is the story of the first Christmas —
a story about things that happened more than 2000 years ago!

That seems like forever ago but it is no fairytale.

This amazing story has been kept in the Bible for everyone to read.

The story begins with a young woman and an angel.
That's right, an angel, a real mighty angel — a messenger from God!

God sent the angel Gabriel to a young woman named Mary.
She was really scared — probably terrified, because she had never seen an angel before.

I know a song about Mary...

Mary's scared, oh yes she is,
yes she is, yes she is!
Mary's scared, oh yes she is!
An angel just flew in!

(To the minor tune of "Mary had a Little Lamb")

But the angel had GOOD news!

"Mary, don't be afraid!
You will have a baby boy
and name him Jesus.
God will make him King forever!"

Wow, Mary is going to give birth to the FOREVER-KING!

I think our scared tune needs
to turn into a happy one!

Mary loves God, yes she does,
yes she does, yes she does!
Mary loves God, yes she does,
and she will follow him.

(To the tune of "Mary had a Little Lamb")

