Janzen Beckstoffer To Kalon Cabernet Sauvignon

Vintage:	2007
Varietal Content:	100% Cabernet Sauvignon
Barrel Regime:	28 months in new French oak barrels
Alcohol:	15.3% alcohol/volume
Cloudy's Tasting Notes:	The 2007 vintage offers exemplary finesse, a velvety texture that fills the palate with jam-packed flavors, and a finish that resists the swallow of that last little bit.
The Wine Advocate, 12/09:	Janzen's other 2007s were still in barrel, but readers should keep an eye out for the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer To-Kalon Vineyard. Offering abundant aromas of creme de cassis, licorice, and smoked herbs as well as admirable density, opulence, and richness, it has 20 years of drinkability ahead of it. Rating 96-Outstanding
Vineyard:	Beckstoffer To Kalon Vineyard . This renowned vineyard is situated just down the road from the Oakville Grocery (where every second tourist stops for picnic essentials). Our rows of the 337 clone lie on flat, nutrient-rich land. Each vine we farm offers us enough fruit for approximately one and a half bottles of wine. The excellence of the fruit from this vineyard and the small amount of wine we can produce from it has resulted in its exclusivity.
Total Production:	225 cases
Our Website Retail Price:	$135
Proprietor:	Claus and Diane Janzen
Consulting Winemaker and Viticulturalist:	Kirk Venge
