

BACIO DIVINO CELLARS

2013 Janzen Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

This historic vineyard is located on the valley floor at the southern boundary of the Oakville AVA. The light gravelly loam is absolutely perfect for growing premium, world class Cabernet. Consistently ripe, concentrated and incredibly complex in flavor, the grapes harvested from this vineyard also provide generous tannins to help the ageing process. We believe the grapes sourced from this vineyard stand alongside the best and most notable vineyards in Napa Valley.

The 2013 Janzen Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer Missouri Hopper Vineyard is from another Oakville site. This wine offers up much more unsmoked cigar tobacco, wet gravel/minerality, crème de cassis, licorice and graphite. It is full-bodied, intense, multilayered, gorgeously pure and long. It can be drunk early on, or cellared for 30+ years.

Lots of tar, asphalt and blackberry aromas and flavors. Full body, chewy and polished tannins. A rich and intense wine with a lot of alcohol but shows form and tension. Better in 2019 but impressive now.

From another of Andy Beckstoffer's sites in Oakville, Missouri Hopper is a mix of cassis, kirsch and leather, its full-bodied structure marked in generous toasty oak. Tea and leather provide a savory edge, balancing the richness of the red fruit. Drink now through 2023. Cellar Selection. —V.B.
