

BACIO DIVINO CELLARS

2013 Lucie Dutton Ranch Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

The vines that yield our Lucie Dutton Ranch Pinot Noir are located near Green Valley, in the Russian River AVA. Weather conditions contributed to fruit of a superb quality in the 2013 vintage: the grapes remained on the vine for an extended period of time without over-ripening.

Rich cola and sweet red fruit exude from the glass immediately after opening, releasing to secondary notes of baking spice and nice floral aromas. With a rich creamy mouth feel, this wine expands quickly on the palate yet maintains a fresh acidity in the finish. Cherry cola and raspberry with a hint of oak char create a wonderfully drinkable yet still age-worthy Pinot Noir.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, October 2015

Rating: 91

The 2013 Pinot Noir Lucie Dutton Ranch Widdoes Vineyard displays more of the earthy beetroot, sassafras and cola notes of Pinot Noir, and that may be a result of the fact that they used 15% whole clusters during the fermentation. The wine is medium ruby, spicy, earthy, and comes across like a premier cru Côtes de Beaune. Drink it over the next 5-6 years.

"Clear and light in color, this complex vineyard-designate sings in tea and nutmeg spice, allowing for richer, riper flavors of baked cherry. Velvety in texture, it builds to a full-figured finish, echoing that initial savory intrigue of black tea." - V.B.
