

BACIO DIVINO CELLARS

2015 Lucie Dutton Ranch Russian River Valley Pinot Noir

Lucie

The Dutton Ranch 'Widdoes Vineyard' is nestled in Green Valley, a sub-AVA of the Russian River Valley. The cooler temperatures of this Sonoma County site allow extended ripening time. Widdoes' shows a more nuanced aromatic set of baking spice, red and black fruits and floral notes. Black cherry, cranberry and tea flavors on the first sip. A medium-bodied wine with great elegance and structure that shows great ageing potential.

Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, October 2017

Rating: 92

Pale to medium ruby-purple in color, the 2015 Pinot Noir Lucie Dutton Ranch Widdoes Vineyard is scented of warm cranberries and red currants with hints of baking spices, potpourri and black tea. Medium-bodied, tightly knit and very elegantly played on the palate, it has a fine-grained frame and great vibrancy, finishing long and layered.

Wine Enthusiast, November 2017

Rating: 92

Heady, beguiling aromatics dominate and invite in this well-made, robustly full-bodied wine, which is spicy and tart in baked plum, cherry, cranberry and a twist of orange. Zesty acidity gives it a kick on the palate, buoyed by a moderate tannin structure.
