

Distinctive design

Need help with interior design? Sarah Bellamy, owner of Skinners of Tunbridge Wells, has the experience and flair to help you create the perfect home

An inspirational interior design service for clients looking to create the home of their dreams, Skinners of Tunbridge Wells has been synonymous with distinctive interior design in Kent and the surrounding areas since 1886. Their store, situated in the heart of Royal Tunbridge Wells, offers an extensive range of fabrics, wallpapers, floor coverings and accessories combining contemporary design with traditional quality and craftsmanship. In fact, Skinners is renowned for maintaining one of the largest fabric libraries in the area, giving it a unique advantage in serving its customers.

Owner Sarah Bellamy runs one of the most prominent interior design consultancies in the south east. She has over 30 years' experience in the property business, and has worked alongside property developers as well as private clients, providing advice on acquisition, planning and full project management, as well as interior design.

Skinners' services also include sourcing, specifying and supplying fabrics and materials, bespoke furniture and soft furnishings, and planning and implementing residential and commercial interior design projects, including turn-key projects to defined budgets and timescales.
