

Dear Subscribers

Heads up on some new Hydration products .. one thats just recently hit our shores and one thats just a great find.

First up is Nuun. Nuun have long been one of the leaders in hydration and have just recently redesigned their whole range . Whats changed?

- They have added non-gmo sourced dextrose to help he body to absorb fluids more efficiently
- They now use plant based sweeteners (Stevia)
- They are now guaranteed gluten-free, dairy + soy free.

Each tablet contains: 10 Calories

- sodium: 360 mg
- potassium: 100 mg
- magnesium: 25 mg

- calcium: 13 mg
- vitamin c: 38 mg
- 10 calories
- 1 g of sugar

We currently stock the Nuun Active range , the Nuun Boost flavours (all the attributes of Nuun Active but also contains B-Vitamins and natural Caffeine in the form of Green Tea Extract) and also the Allday (added Vitamins) and Plus (incl carbohydrate) range .

Nuun are currently priced at £5.99 for a tube of 10.

Also recent additions to the stock are the OTE range and a good alternative to the more established Nuun.

OTE Hydro Tabs come in 3 flavours : Blackcurrant, Lemon and Cherry Cola with Caffeine .

They are also naturally flavoured and come in tubes of 10. Price, a very reasonable £3.99 per tube.

Definitely worth checking out - full details on the links above.

For website Interaction we now have full Facebook integration for order summary and shipping details (you need to opt-in at checkout) - so you can get an instant message within seconds of your order despatch incl full order details.....And payment has just got a whole lot easier as we now also have Apple Pay integration - you can now pay at the click of a button right from your mobile device! *You will need to get the latest free IOS10 upgrade.

Finally , please do remember we have set ourselves up to favour return custom - all friend referrals earn you points and discounts - 2 members last month received completely free purchases due to referrals, likes and purchases! - - For a reminder , all details can be found on the Rewards tab on the left of the Front Screen. Points earned here:

The screenshot shows the Bikenut app interface with a red header bar containing the logo and a close button. Below the header are two columns: 'Rewards' and 'Earn Points'. The 'Rewards' column lists: 'Customer Birthday + 50 points', 'Liking page on Facebook + 50 points', 'Following on Instagram + 50 points', and a partially visible 'Gift' icon. The 'Earn Points' column lists: 'Customer Referral + 200 points', 'Sharing on Facebook + 50 points', and 'Create a store account + 200 points'. At the bottom, there are 'Back' and 'Continue shopping' buttons, and a footer that says 'Powered by Sweet Tooth'.
