Case Study: Uberflip

"I have ordered several for our company recognition program and recipients are always so thrilled by the baskets Sophia and her team create."

-Mary

To celebrate a major company milestone, we helped bring Uberflip's "To the Moon" theme to life.

Our corporate team sourced outer space-themed office and snack items to pair with Uberflip's branded assets, creating a cute and memorable acknowledgment of their employees' hard work.

Case Study: Enbridge

*I had a tight deadline for a corporate event and no ask was too big or too small for Sophia. Looking forward to working with this company again in the future. A fantastic customer experience.

-Aine

To complement Enbridge's annual departmental town hall, we were tasked with creating branded gifts that were thoughtful, unique, culturally-inclusive and gender-neutral.

We came up with tiered options of cozy, stay-at-home gifts with branded elements, to be enjoyed by the recipients, as well as their families.

Case Study: Google

*"Sophia and her team were accommodating, responsive and moved fast. Couldn't ask for a better experience and they took the work of our client gifts completely off our plates so we could focus on other things.
Highly recommend!"

-Lisa

Google Canada account managers sent their newest retail clients "Summertime Comfort"- themed gifts to set themselves apart as a company that understands the need for self care amidst the corporate hustle.

With a custom message and a branded gift tag, these account managers were able to create a touchpoint that made a caring, personal first impression when onboarding clients.

Case Study: First National

"I've been using Present Day for client gifts for the last month or so & the feedback from clients has been beyond excellent!"

We have sent out thousands of gifts on behalf of First National Financial to celebrate when one of their clients pays off their mortgage.

With celebratory items like champagne glasses, balloons and confetti, as well as custom printed chocolate bars, matches and tags, we have made this ongoing initiative a unique way to celebrate a major customer milestone.
