

sales associate, part-time

summary: A Summit To Soul sales associate is responsible, highly motivated, and ready to provide excellent customer service. Sales associates primarily greet customers, manage financial transactions, and help to achieve store goals. They may also assist in social media management, event planning, and visual merchandising. This position requires a minimum commitment of 8 hours per week on the weekends, with the potential for more hours if of interest. Weekday availability and schedule flexibility is a plus.

duties & responsibilities:

- Assists in creating digital content and managing social media accounts
- Assists in organizing and executing in-store events (Wednesday night availability for our weekly run club is a plus!)
- Displays a "customer first" mindset at all times; focuses on engaging with the customer to meet their individual needs and makes relevant merchandise/styling suggestions
- Stays current on all product knowledge and communicates features and benefits to customers to build customer knowledge and confidence in the product
- Utilizes the Point of Sale cash system, processes payments, refunds and exchanges and issues gift cards
- Receives/processes stock and replenishes stock as needed
- Performs store opening and closing duties for the day
- Embodies Summit To Soul culture and values in all aspects of the job
- Serves as an ambassador for the Summit To Soul brand must haves:

- Previous experience in retail/fitness industry
- Passion for and involvement in running, yoga, barre, and/or other fitness and health activities
- Upbeat, optimistic, passionate, friendly and authentic
- Excellent team player but also able to work independently
- Ability to sell, relate to others, and communicate effectively
- Extraordinary guest interaction, organizational and time management skills
- Strong social media skills (Photoshop, Canva, or similar skills are a plus!)

what you get:

- Working in a new and growing company with opportunities to expand roles and responsibilities
- Being part of a dynamic, energetic, entrepreneurial team
- Generous employee discount on our amazing collection of clothing and accessories
- Competitive pay based on experience

summit to soul