Best Fair Trade Shopping: Nica Life

Founded as an online jewelry company in 2015, Nica Life opened its first retail location at the Beacon Atlanta last December and will expand to a larger space near Cabbagetown next year. The brand's mermaid necklaces, colorful paper-bead earrings, and waxed cord stack bracelets are designed by artisans in Nicaragua, who earn fair wages to support their families. Simple string bracelets start at $6, while woven necklaces with glass beads can run up to $75.

Best Retail Relocation: Tom Ford

After three years at the Shops Buckhead Atlanta, luxury fashion brand Tom Ford has relocated to Phipps Plaza in the former Giorgio Armani space. Offering men's and women's ready-to-wear, the new 4,500-square-foot location enhances Phipps's $300-million renovation, which began in October 2018 and will include a Nobu hotel and restaurant.

HOT HACK

Alternative Apparel opens its warehouse doors a few times a year for sample sales where fleece and cotton goods are discounted up to 85 percent. Look for a holiday sale in December.
