"I strongly recommend this course to anyone who wants to participate in politics as it has taught me so much. I am now determined to engage in the world of politics as a diplomat or an MP. It was very insightful to meet different panels engaged in all parts of the political field as they gave us insight to the reality of politics."

Student, the Young International Politics Summer Experience 2021

"It was great to be able to interact with peers who shared the same passion and interests as me and the activities that we got to execute together were an added bonus. It was nothing short of amazing."
