Introduction

Joggers pants might have started out as workout-wear, but that doesn't mean fashion-forward fellas have to limit their use to the gym or athletic field. On the contrary, these lightweight, comfy tapered pants are ideal for a wide range of outings, from casual Fridays at the office to evenings out on the town. Offering superior mobility and a look that's more polished than that provided by your average sweats, joggers truly are the new jeans.

Here are some tips on styling your joggers so you'll look on fleek at every occasion:

Style 1

For the Office

You probably can't wear those beat-up sweats to the office. However, if your workplace is on the casual side, you might be able to don a well-fitted pair of joggers now and then.

To style your joggers for the office, eschew cottons and knits in favor of more formal fabrics, like corduroy or khaki. Dress up your ensemble with a button-down shirt or sweater and choose a casual loafer over a sneaker or sandal. Men have even been known to pair their favorite joggers with a crisp white shirt and sports coat.

At Apparel Loop, we think a striped pullover sweater and khaki joggers make for a great business-casual impression. Just make sure your boss is cool with casual wear before donning this ensemble in the workplace!

Style 2

For Date Night

Joggers are a great choice for nights out with that special someone. For a look that's polished and put together, pair chino joggers with a denim button-down or even a slim sweater. A jacket and tee can also dress up a your tapered sweats, making them an appropriate choice for a sushi date or trip to the cinema.

The Apparel Loop team thinks that pairing a white button-down shirt with basic black joggers make for a clean and classic first impression.

For that Lazy Weekend

Whether you're watching the ball game with buds or meeting friends for brunch, joggers offer a cool, can't-go-wrong look for just about any weekend excursion. Pair our cozy cargo joggers with a simple white or black t-shirt for a cool summer style. For colder days, consider adding a cardigan, hoodie, or even a plaid jacket. Slip on a pair of low sneakers to complete your look, and you're ready to hit the town.

For the Workout

Just because you're going to get your sweat on doesn't mean you need to look like a shlub. If you want to look and feel great at the gym, consider opting for joggers instead of your usual saggy sweats. For a sleek workout look, you can pair your favorite joggers with a casual gray hoodie and earbuds, or opt for a raglan tee and some cool kicks.

At Apparel Loop, we think our fleece joggers are just the thing for improving an early-morning winter workout—and making a good impression on that hottie on the next elliptical. Leg day might make you cringe, but when you're wearing your favorite joggers, you'll always feel great.

The name might imply that joggers are gym-wear, but the truth is these casual pants are becoming a wardrobe staple. Dress your joggers up or down to suit a variety of events and occasions.
