

WITH SIGNS
POINTING
TO A
BABY BOY
KATE'S
STAR
TURN
AS SHE DAZZLES ON A DATE NIGHT
WITH WILLIAM

MEG
ME
CAMILLA
WORDS
BRID

INSIDE THE QUEEN'S STYLISH DEBUT

EXCLUSIVE INT

TOFF'S
TOP
JOBBAGS OF STYLE

Superlative in both form and function, crossbody bags are the safest way to hold all your essentials hands-free. This one from Zara will stay stylish for seasons to come.

Crossbody bag with handle and metal details, £29.99, Zara; visit zara.com

EXCLUSIVE

The Style
Edit
By Donna Air

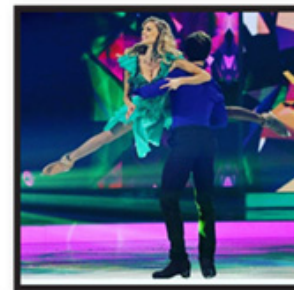

Our contributing style editor says goodbye to winter as she strides into spring and peps up her wardrobe for the new season

Instagram
OF THE WEEK

Our Dancing on Ice adventure is over, but a huge thank you to everyone who voted and enabled me and Mark Hanretty to keep on skating for so long. We're feeling the love from HELLO! readers.

Dancing on Ice, ITV, Sunday, 6pm

QUICK FIX

Clarins will always hold a special place in my heart; it was my go-to skincare brand in my teens and I still get nostalgic at the smell of Eau Dynamisante. The new Neroli body lotion is perfect for spring skin hydration.

Moisture-Rich Body Lotion Trio, £30, visit clarins.co.uk

INVESTMENT BUY

One of my favourite jewellery designers on the planet is Diane Kordas. Her designs are cool, original and crafted from the finest stones. I can't wait to rock my new Star Stud with jeans, a T-shirt and mules (see below for my current faves).

Single Star Stud earring, £604, Diane Kordas; visit dianekordasjewellery.com

FASHION QUEST
Spring shoes

If there's one shoe trend to invest in now and wear all season long, it's the humble mule. Stunningly versatile and comfy, they're perfect for the office, dinner and the weekend.

Prism cutout leather mules, £425, Nicholas Kirkwood from net-a-porter.com

PHOTO: ELISABETH HOFF

Note to Self Now I've fallen in love with ice skating, I must see I, Tonya, starring Margot Robbie as the infamous figure skater Tonya Harding - it's a darkly comedic tale promising sequins, fireworks, and frills.

For more top tips and fashion-forward information, follow @donnaair on Twitter and @ainonna1 on Instagram