Must do

I was lucky enough to get my Mykonos must-do tips from the island's First Lady of fashion, jewelry designer Diane Kordas, who decamps here every summer with her Greek husband Stefanos. Top of those is the beachside restaurant (-cum-bar-cum-boutique) Alemàgou; the staff look like sage yogis, the clientele lounge with the confidence that comes with knowing there is nowhere better in the world to be, and something as simple as a tomato salad tastes like the nectar of the gods (OK, I ordered fries too).
