

VOGUE

MARCH
£3.99

INTERNATIONAL COLLECTIONS SPECIAL

Edie Campbell's
LONDON VIBE

What's in
FASHION'S BIG FIVE TRENDS?

DRESS UP DRESS DOWN

How to be smart now

MIRACULOUS COMBINATIONS

The key to the modern wardrobe

THE QUEEN
*90 years
of style*

NEW SEASON FASHION GUIDE

LIKE A CHARM

Start hinting now about that last-minute Valentine's gift – a diamond-encrusted amulet by jeweller Diane Kordas. Fill it with your own scent or a lover's (Kordas's contains Omnia Améthyste by Bulgari) and keep it with you wherever you go. Gold and diamond perfume amulets, from £2,850 each, Dianekordasjewellery.com

CLUB RULES

Never been much of a "club" person? You might be persuaded otherwise. London's traditional-members-club scene is undergoing a revival. The revamped Mark's Club in Mayfair attracts a chic crowd who adore the upholstery as much as the punchy cocktail list. (Act like a regular – no one leaves without petting the club dog.) Wine-lovers have 67 Pall Mall, which is dedicated to oenophiles, while the Devonshire Club, a converted Regency warehouse in the City, has a blow-dry and nail bar and a Pilates studio. Should you want to make your club a home, the Arts Club in Dover Street has 16 hotel rooms, including a penthouse suite. Get on the waiting lists now. HN

MARK'S CLUB

SANT LAURENT

ROLL with it

Rewind to Glastonbury 1995, and button your denim jacket all the way – the Oasis dress code of tracksuit, parka and bucket hat is back for summer, thanks to director Mat Whitecross's forthcoming, as yet untitled film.

ALEXANDER WANG

WES GORDON

VERSACE