1 SHOULDER-SKIMMING EARRINGS

When speaking to designers and industry insiders, one opinion was unanimous: 2018 is going to be an ear party. Take lobe dressing up a notch with shoulder-skimming, dramatic drop designs by Chanel, David Morris and Diane Kordas. While this trend undoubtedly completes a cocktail dress, we like it best when elevating low-key, daytime looks.

GOING GREEN

It is all about going green for 2018, symbolically and literally, as the secondary colour undergoes a luxurious transformation. 'Avocado green' has been cited as the next 'millennial pink', while electric lime shades populate the spring collections. Embrace verdant fine jewellery including bright olive peridot from Delfina Delettrez, rich emeralds at James Ganh and Pomellato's juicy tourmalines.
