Rio Carnival

This is a much more satisfying way to get your five-a-day – lovely, juicy, frivolous-but-actually-quite-hardcore jewels. Pulsating with colour. With all the poetry of the rainbow, but quite a lot more staying power. And a certain Carmen Miranda silliness. Yes, there is a lightheartedness to this totally tropical – jungly, almost – take on fine jewellery. Because even though it's a serious business, why be po-faced about it? In the end, it's art. AR
