For Teams Who Don't Go Gently

Our journey began with our founder Paul's vision to shake up the western wear industry with values rooted in quality, comfort, and down home hospitality. Everything we've built was only made possible because of a team of hardworking folks all pulling in the same direction — anything but gently. So, we understand just how important it is to celebrate the wins together. Gather your group, raise a glass, and step into a pair of handcrafted boots worthy of your go-getters.

We'll roll out the cowhide carpet for y'all at any of our stores, with corporate and bulk order pricing that's a square deal anyway you slice it.

Round up the crew and yee haw!

Group Offerings

TEAM GIFTING

Provide your team with boots, bags, and leather goods.

CORPORATE EVENTS & FITTINGS

We'll help you plan and host an in-store event at any of our retail locations.

PERSONALIZED LEATHER STAMPING

Make your gift personal with your company's initials.

WEDDING PARTIES

Give your wedding party a little giddy-up.

Western Goods for New Frontiers

We're all headed somewhere — be it a promotion, a big pitch, hosting a team bonding event, or finding just the right way to say, “thank you.” All of our western goods are born from tradition and crafted from the finest materials in the business. Thoughtful products make for thoughtful gifts. Wherever your team or group is headed, they'll arrive in comfort and confidence in Tecovas.

MEN'S & WOMEN'S BOOTS

We make both men's and women's boots built for any occasion — business and casual. And they're all comfortable out of the box.

BAGS

Find a trusty, reliable travel partner, ready for wherever you're going. Our bags bring limitless functionality in exceptionally handsome packages.

SMALL LEATHER GOODS

Wallets and belts made from the same fine leather as our boots.

ACCESSORIES

The little things can go a long way.

Pricing that Won't Break the Bank

Traditionally, we're not one for sales or discounts. Our direct-to-consumer pricing ensures that all of our products are sold at wholesale prices, and by cutting out retail middlemen, we can pass savings on to our customers. For corporate and bulk orders, we do offer a tiered markdown structure starting at 8 units of a given product/category.

Always a Grand Opening

Opening a box of new Tecovas is an experience in and of itself. Attention to detail, handcrafted packaging, and the smell of a fresh pair of boots are all things we take pride in. Let us provide your team with a thoughtful and personalized gifting and unwrapping experience.

Let Us Host, Y'all

Walking into a Tecovas store is a sensory experience. The smell of leather, a friendly smile, and products you'll want to pick up and get to know are all waiting for you. We'll also happily pour you a drink or polish those boots of yours. We built these stores for a reason and you're it. Bring your team in for a group fitting, or happy hour.

The Golden Age of Boots Never Lost a Step

DESIGNED IN AUSTIN, TX

The western boot is an icon. We favor simple, timeless designs that never go out of style. Our boots are as in style today as they were 50 years ago, and will be 50 years from now. As we see it, tradition and confidence are always in, and that's what our designs stand for.

HANDMADE IN LEÓN, MEXICO

Any boot worth its own heel is made in León. From fine leathers and hand-laid cording to the individual pacing of lemonwood pegs, it takes a team of artisans over 200 steps to make a single boot by hand. That's quality you can truly feel.

In Case You Were Wondering...

WHO CAN ACCESS A CORPORATE SALES ACCOUNT WITH TECOVAS?

Any customer/company who understands that Tecovas works on a direct-to-consumer model and does not provide wholesale prices for resale. With any bulk purchase, the customer agrees to use our products solely as a gift and/or complimentary incentive to clients and not to purpose for resale at any point.

WHY DOESN'T TECOVAS OFFER DISCOUNTS OR HAVE SALES?

Tecovas is committed to offering handcrafted, quality goods that do not break the bank. Thanks to our direct-to-consumer business model, we're able to cut out the middleman and eliminate unnecessary markups. This allows us to pass those savings along to our customers and offer our products at fair, wholesale-level prices every day. With the exception of products we're discontinuing, we don't typically markdown our goods. We do make exceptions for larger, bulk orders and we've done our best to design a discount structure that's mutually beneficial for both us and our corporate customers!

RETURN POLICY FOR CORP SALES ITEMS

We have a strict 30-day return policy on all unused, like-new products. Anything debossed or customized in any way will be final sale and non-returnable.

We Love to Share

If you love your Tecovas, we want to hear about it. Tag us on social media, and we'll tag you back to over a hundred thousand of our followers.
