

8:00 am Registration & Breakfast

9:00 am Opening Keynote

9:30 am Rise of the Machines

Where else can robots and AI make our lives easier, mine seas of data, or drive efficiency or superior returns? Let's check in with those at the bleeding edge of automation.

10:10 am Hot Startups Demo

11:10 am The Modern VC - Much More than Capital

Venture capitalist relationships can mean so much more than just an investment... "They sit at the center of many social relationships that a business can use." says Matt Harris, MD at Bain Capital Ventures. Capital is just one of the tools the modern VC can use to enable exponential growth. Their network, subject matter expertise, and mentorship can prove far more valuable. Learn how FinTech entrepreneurs partner with VCs to successfully navigate the enterprise space.

12:50 pm Afternoon Keynote

1:15 pm RegTech Report

New regulation risks drowning smaller financial services organizations, in essence thwarting competition. At the same time, it can introduce new opportunities for FinTechs to innovate. In the era of GDPR, PSD2 and MiFID II, let's check in on how new regulation has affected innovation and who the early winners will be.

1:55 pm Hot Startups Demo

2:55 pm New Kids on the Blockchain

You can no longer discuss the FinTech revolution without considering the widespread implications of Blockchain. From smart contracts and settlement to underbanked identity management, this panel will offer an update on the latest trends in Blockchain.

3:35 pm Hot Startups Demo

4:35 pm B2B Innovators

Your dry-cleaner knows you by first name, but your stockbroker doesn't. A deep dive into technologies shaking up traditional banking, asset management, insurance and FinServ as a whole. While disrupting banks makes headlines, it's also increasingly important for startups to forge strategic partnerships with large enterprises for distribution, subject matter expertise, and capital.

5:15 pm Reception & Hors d'oeuvres