

A vintage advertisement sign for Singer Sewing Machines. The sign is dark green with a black border and a hanging hole at the top. On the left side, there is a circular logo with a woman sewing at a machine, surrounded by the text "SINGER SEWING MACHINES" in red. To the right of the logo, the text "FOR EVERY STITCHING OPERATION" is written in large, red, outlined letters. Below this, the words "Thursday" and "March" are written in white, outlined letters. At the bottom, a large, light-colored number "1" is cut out of the sign. Two small circular logos are placed on either side of the "March" text. The sign is mounted on a white background.
