HAVING HER MOMENT: TILDA SWINTON

The ethereal beauty and all-round living legend is the newest face of Nars Cosmetics — joining the recent spate of fabulous women in the 40-plus bracket winning coveted beauty contracts. Swinton's predecessors at the brand include Charlotte Rampling, 68, and Daphne Guinness, 47, while Jessica Lange, 65, fronted a series of Marc Jacobs Beauty campaigns earlier this year. We love Swinton's slightly off-centre approach to fashion (pyjamas on the red-carpet, anyone?), plus her flawless porcelain skin makes a case for sunscreen everywhere. A total of four portraits were shot by the company's founder, François Nars, each portraying the 53-year-old actor in a different light, which will translate into character-driven makeup collections. Look out for the full range, available in early 2015.

ADD TO BEAUTY LEXICON: FERMENTED SKINCARE

THINGS WE CAN THANK THE KOREANS FOR: eyelash extensions, blotting tissues, super-concentrated serums, and BB and CC creams. So you can bet the next big thing in Seoul will be a beauty hit worldwide. At the moment, it's fermented skincare.

The founder of The Beauty Chef, Carla Oates, explains: "There is really interesting research around bacteria on the skin and how keeping it healthy and in balance can have a positive effect on our immune system. And I love the fact that lacto-fermentation is completely natural ... Here we have this incredible biological process that turns natural ingredients into super-active ones."

Creative dream team Sarah Blair and Jeffrey Darling enlisted the help of Parisian perfumer Givaudan to craft their poetic ideas and feelings into a fragrance range, Map of the Heart. The Red Heart, $195 (90ml), is inspired by ripe feijoa fruit, with spicy top notes and a sweet base of musk, Australian sandalwood and Madagascar vanilla. ## GLOBETROTTER

Beat the sluggish skin and spirits that usually accompany jet lag with a natural sleep enhancer.

Try spritzing This Works Deep Sleep Body Therapy spray, $39, straight onto skin for a soothing blend of lavender, vetiver and wild camomile. If you're game, apply a face mask before you doze off — such as Kiehl's Clearly Corrective White Hydrating & Clarifying Treatment Masque, $75 (box of six) — to fight off the dehydrating climate control. Payot Perform Lift Regard, $85, can help lift tired eyes with a hefty dose of plumping hyaluronic acids. And avoid flat plane hair with Moroccanoil Root Boost, $44.50.

MIDAS TOUCH

From micro-fine 18-carat precious-metal granules to gilded flakes, gold leaf in your top coat is the only way to finish off your DIY mani. Layer it over a natural nude or contrast it with a deep rouge hue — it'll make your fingertips scream luxury.

Lancôme Vernis in Love in Illuminations, $31.
