If you don't already know who they are, the Educational Theatre Association (EdTA) is a national nonprofit organization with approximately 90,000 student and professional members. EdTA's mission is shaping lives through theatre education by: honoring student achievement in theatre and enriching their theatre education experience; supporting teachers by providing professional development, networking opportunities, resources, and recognition; and influencing public opinion that theatre education is essential and builds life skills.

Their website is jam-packed with resources but to start we recommend checking out their Open Forum for interesting and helpful discussions.

Dramatics magazine

EdTA also publishes a fantastic monthly magazine specifically for high school theatre students and teachers called Dramatics. A typical issue might include new plays, practical articles on acting, directing, design, production, and other facets of theatre, and career-oriented profiles of working theatre professionals. EdTA also publishes a journal for professional theatre educators, called Teaching Theatre.
